Explanatory Notes on the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

This Act provides that after a certain lapse of time convictions for criminal offences are to be regarded as "spent".

An applicant for a registration need not disclose spent convictions and the Committee may not taken them into account when considering an application.

Sentences of imprisonment exceeding 30 months duration can never be treated as spent and must be disclosed however long they were imposed. Certain of the periods of time, which must elapse in other cases before the conviction becomes spent, are set out below.

	Sentence	Rehabilitation Period
1.	Over 6 months imprisonment but under 30 months	10 years
2.	Under 6 months imprisonment	7 years
3.	A Fine	5 years
4.	Conditional discharge, Bound Over or Probation	1 year or period of discharge bound over, or probation whichever is the longer
5.	Absolute Discharge	6 months
6.	Cashiering, discharge with ignominy or dismissal with disgrace from HM Forces	10 years
7.	Dismissal from HM Forces	7 years
8.	Disqualification, disability or Prohibition	Period of disqualification, disability

The periods of time, which must elapse in other cases before the conviction becomes spent, vary considerably according to the nature of the offence and other circumstances. The rehabilitation period may, for example, be extended by the commission of a further offence during the rehabilitation period. Further guidance on this may be obtained from the Home Office publication "A Guide to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974" or from a Solicitor.

Please note these are for guidance only and do not constitute a comprehensive Legal interpretation of the legislation, and applicants are advised to seek independent advice.
